Building a Chatbot: Case Study

A chatbot can provide conversational support and respond to user queries naturally and efficiently.

Create a chatbot which understands and interprets user messages, identifies their intent, and provides appropriate responses. The goal is to provide users with a personalized and efficient conversational experience that reduces the need for human intervention and improves overall customer satisfaction.

Below are some intents you can use to create a chatbot: